

USPS® Makes Gift-Giving Easy

The 2014 Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer Forever® stamps.

Whether you forgot to add someone to your holiday list or need to find a gift for that special someone, the U.S. Postal Service® has you covered. In select Post Offices™ this holiday, customers can buy greeting cards, gift cards and postage, and mail their gifts all in one place. Check out our online and retail options to make gift-giving easy this season.

Did you know it's the 50th anniversary of the longest-running Christmas special in history?

Holiday Stamps

- Show your loved ones you care with a personal holiday letter or card. The 2014 holiday stamps are a perfect complement to your greetings this season. Find them on usps.com or at your local Post Office.

Words of Love

- Approximately 9,800 Post Offices nationwide will feature holiday greeting card selections.

Gifts Galore

- Assorted gift cards are available in 5,000 Post Offices nationwide. These decorative gift cards from a variety of vendors are available in denominations of $25 and $50 as well as any even dollar amount between $25 and $100.
- The 2014 White House Holiday Ornament is a unique decoration for any Christmas tree. It will be available at select Post Offices, online at the U.S. Postal Service Store on eBay Store, in the USA Philatelic Catalog and at usps.com/shop for $24.99.
- Feeling artsy? USPS® now offers framed stamp art on its new eBay store. Visit ebay.com/stamps for more details.

Wrapping Style

- For a limited time at USPS retail locations, the new medium and large Priority Mail Flat Rate® boxes will feature a printed holiday bow. These free boxes can add a special touch to your wrapping style. Quantities are limited, so get yours today.
- Skip the late-night wrapping session. Use our decorative ReadyPost® holiday boxes and bubble mailers, to simplify your gift wrapping needs. ReadyPost shipping products are available in Post Offices in various sizes and designs priced from $1.79 to $4.39.

