Tuesday's 'Jeopardy!' Includes 2016 Stamp Category

WASHINGTON — Here's your chance to become a "Jeopardy!" champion. The popular television game show is giving the Postal Service its stamp of approval Tuesday, May 10, by including a 2016 Stamps category.

Give your family the inside edge on Tuesday night's clues by viewing the stamps and getting background information on each of them: Postal Service Previews 2016 Stamps and Postal Service Previews Spectacular National Parks Stamp Pane.

Spread the news on social media on your favorite stamps using the hashtag #Jeopardy!

The Postal Service receives no tax dollars for operating expenses and relies on the sale of postage, products and services to fund its operations.
